

LET'S PRAY.....EVERY DAY
MAY 2021

Psalm 100		A week of Prayer of Praise & Thanksgiving
Sat	1 st	Thank You for Easter; for the cross and Jesus' resurrection to life! Praise God for His amazing love.
Sun	2 nd	We praise you Father for the Spring, for all new life in our gardens and parks, on farms, in fields & in our seas.
Mon	3 rd	We thank you for the signs of healing in our world as we emerge from the grip of Covid-19.
Tues	4 th	We praise you over & over Lord, for your gifts to our scientists & medical people who are helping you to bring us out of this pandemic.
Wed	5 th	We thank you for everyone who has worked tirelessly throughout all the lockdowns, to bring us food, medicine, our post, tv & radio programmes, Church services, educators & those running our country.
Thurs	6 th	Praise you Father God , you are so good all the time.
Fri	7 th	Thank you for being the One we can always run to, with your arms wide open for us to run into.

Col 1:16		A week of prayer for our World
Sat	8 th	We pray for continued healing for our beautiful world, as we try to reduce plastic & waste. We pray for the desire to do our part.
Sun	9 th	For the world's Governments & leaders, for softer hearts to love their people and serve with compassion.
Mon	10 th	For people whose greed leads to destruction of forests, our seas, wildlife, the ozone layer.
Tues	11 th	For all who are grieving the loss of loved ones from Covid-19 & those living in fear of it. For those unemployed & in financial difficulty.
Wed	12 th	For those countries still in lockdown.
Thurs	13 th	For refugees seeking safety.
Fri	14 th	For Peace, and for doubters to find the love of God.

Eph 6:7		A week of prayer for our Churches
Sat	15 th	We give thanks as Churches begin to open their doors again, and the joy to be found inside.
Sun	16 th	For Dan & the 3 TOT groups as we emerge and try to find the right balance in our return to Church activities.
Mon	17 th	For all those in our Churches who have kept worship possible with their contributions.
Tues	18 th	For those who are having doubts about returning.
Wed	19 th	For those who have thought about God during lockdown & might walk through our doors.
Thurs	20 th	For those who might choose to continue to worship at home & how we accommodate them.
Fri	21 st	For the persecuted Church from Afghanistan to Vietnam. So many countries Father where your people are not free to worship you. We ask you to shield your people & pray that talks will lead to peace, in Jesus' Name, Amen. (see pages 16-17)

Gal 6:2		A week of prayer for our Communities
Sat	22 nd	Give thanks for our families & friends and that reuniting after so long apart feels so good.
Sun	23 rd	For all the agencies helping the homeless, those in financial difficulties, those with poor mental health.
Mon	24 th	For victims of violence & injustice in our communities.
Tues	25 th	For our shops struggling financially.
Wed	26 th	Our street, our flats, our town.
Thurs	27 th	For hairdressers & non- essential shops opening.
Fri	28 th	For all volunteers who may be considering not returning. That God will raise up new volunteers.
Sat - Mon	29 th - 31 st	For ourselvesthose in pain, unwell, grieving, afraid, in financial difficulty. Pray for the healing touch of Jesus to bring peace into bodies, hearts & minds. For those in our families/streets, friendship groups who haven't met Jesus yet. Pray for eyes, ears & hearts to be opened. Amen.
